Airport Information

The closest airport is Montreal-Trudeau International Airport (YUL).

- To Montreal.

If you are entering Canada at Montreal, you will have to pass through Customs and Immigration. The busiest arrival time is usually the late afternoon and early evening.

- From Montreal.

If you are flying from Montreal to the United States, you will clear US Customs and Immigration in Montreal. You should allow AT LEAST an extra 30 minutes for this step in the check – in process, more if you will be travelling in the early morning or late afternoon.

See <http://www.admtl.com/passager/Home.aspx> for more information.

Airport Bus between the Airport and the Four Points by Sheraton

The bus runs between the airport and the Montreal Central Bus Station (505 de Maisonneuve Blvd E). A minibus service at no additional charge is available from Bus Station to major downtown hotels including the Four Points.

- Departure every 25-30 minutes and take about 45 minutes one-way.
- You can buy the tickets either at the airport or the Central Bus Station. Tickets cost 14 CAD for one-way and 24 CAD for round-trip. Credit cards are welcome.
- At the airport, go to Gate 5 (arrival level). You can buy your tickets and wait for the bus there.
- Beware that the bus will stop at Sheraton Hotel which is not the Four Points by Sheraton.
